

Dear Friends,

My challenge 33 - 33 Families in 33 days!

CBSM is a Swiss charity running and building up a Primary and Secondary school for 600 orphans and vulnerable children in the rural village of Kimilili, Kenya. Our aim is to offer the best education possible to those who would otherwise not be able to afford to go to school. We provide meals for the pupils, pay teacher's salaries, train staff and provide learning materials while building up and improving the infrastructure of the school.

CBSM was founded by 3 passionate ladies Agnes, Alex and I 3 years ago. We have 33 locals working at CBSM Kenya today and had support from 33 volunteers that have gotten their hands dirty in Kimilili. Pssst, don't tell anyone but I am also 33 years old and therefore: It's all about the 3!

Enough reasons for a crazy challenge!

In order to support our needy kids and our 33 CBSM staff members in Kimilili, I will pack a camping mat, a sleeping bag and a mosquito net and stay at 33 different families one night each for 33 days. Every morning I will introduce you to my host family by uploading a blog and pictures to share their lifestyle, dreams and challenges with you. Follow my adventures on: www.cbsm-kimilili.org 333 helpers needed - be one of them!

To reach this goal, we require USD 33,000, or split up in smaller amounts: 333 people that support this goal with USD 3 per each of the 33 days that I spend with a family (in total USD 99). Will you be one of them?

Here is how you can help:

- Support Challenge 33 with USD 3 for each of my 33 days. Donate USD 99 (EUR 70 / CHF 90 / GBP 60) with the subject "Challenge 33 – Astrid" on below accounts.
- Forward this email to anyone that might be interested in supporting Challenge 33 and therefore our Primary and Secondary children in Kimilili.

100% of your donations go directly to the school!
